

A Moment of Silence for Lee Arnold, DC

Editorial Staff

Missouri native and Seminole, Florida chiropractor for 35 years, Lee E. Arnold, DC, passed away January 21 in Clearwater, Florida.

Dr. Arnold was a 1949 graduate of National College of Chiropractic (now the National University of Health Sciences), and its president from 1984 to 1986. He was also a past president of the Florida Chiropractic Association, the Pinellas County Chiropractic Association, and the Chiropractic Council on Neurology.

Dr. Arnold was a telegrapher in World War II with U.S. Naval Intelligence. After his service, he was an active member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, and was a charter member and president of the Seminole Rotary Club.

Dr. Arnold was a lecturer and author. He wrote several articles for DC on Technikon Natal, the chiropractic college in Durban, South Africa (See "On Safari with Natal Technikon" at www.chiroweb.com/archives/09/04/25.html, and "South Africa's Technikon Natal - An Adventure for Chiropractic Educators" at www.chiroweb.com/archives/13/14/02.html.) The latter article was written after Dr. Arnold had completed a three-month teaching stint at the college.

Dr. Arnold is survived by his wife of 55 years, Jean Mary; a daughter, Dr. Sandra Woodruff of Carson City, Nevada; son Lee Arnold Jr, of Clearwater; brothers Lester Arnold of St. Petersburg, and Dr. James Arnold of Iowa City, Iowa; a grandson, Roger Woodruff; and granddaughters Alisha and Nicole Arnold.
