

New Reviewer for Dynamic Chiropractic

Editorial Staff

Dynamic Chiropractic is very pleased to introduce our new reviewer, Steven C. Eggleston, D.C. Dr. Eggleston, an LACC alumnus and faculty member, has been in private practice since 1989 in Huntington Beach, California.

A popular and experienced speaker on chiropractic, he has authored National Board Review of Physical Therapy; co-authored Review for National Board of Chiropractic Examiners Parts 1 and 2; Medical Terminology; Know Your Vitamins; "State Board Review" (audio tapes); Differential Diagnosis of Head Pain and Arthritis; Differential Diagnosis of Neck and Arm Pain; and Differential Diagnosis of Low Back and Leg Pain. He has edited Clinical Neurology; Differential Diagnosis of Low Back and Leg Pain; Functional Restoration of the Low Back; and Advanced Whiplash Injuries.

Dr. Eggleston is a member of the ACA, California Chiropractic Association (CCA), and an associate member of the American College of Chiropractic Orthopedists.

In the past, "DC" only reviewed educational material that had received a positive editorial review. We will now incorporate good, bad, or indifferent reviews of chiropractic books, audio tapes, videos, etc., that have been submitted to us.

Dr. Eggleston will be using a rating scale, 1-10 (10 being best) when critiquing the review material.

Dr. Eggleston's review begins on page 16.
