

Missouri State Chiropractors Association Names Educator of the Year

Kathy Mills Chang is the recipient of the "Educator of the Year Award" courtesy of the Missouri State Chiropractors Association (MSCA). This award represents the high esteem, respect and appreciation that Kathy has gained working to better the profession in Missouri and around the country.

"Recognitions like these keep my motivation running at the highest point, and validate my purpose: to serve the Chiropractic profession the best way I can, making sure I give Doctors and their staff the tools to succeed and spread wellness in the communities they serve," said Chang.

Kathy has been involved in various levels of the chiropractic profession for more than 25 years, including serving as insurance director for the American Chiropractic Association. She currently serves as Foot Levelers' insurance advisor and is the founder of her own consulting firm, Kathy Mills Chang University, assisting doctors with reimbursement.

"Kathy Mills Chang's accomplishments speak volumes about her dedication to chiropractic," said Dr. Brian Jensen, associate director of education and research for Foot Levelers. "We are proud to have her as a member of our speakers' bureau and look forward to her continued success as she shares her expertise with the profession."
