Hamm Elected New President of the ACA

At the American Chiropractic Association's recent House of Delegates meeting in Washington, D.C., delegates elected Anthony Hamm, DC - who made history in 2011 as the first doctor of chiropractic to co-chair the American Medical Association's Health Care Professionals Advisory Committee Review Board (HCPAC) - as association president. Dr. Hamm will serve as ACA president for the next two years, (and continues his service as HCPAC co-chair following his re-election earlier this year).

Dr. Hamm, who has served in various capacities within the ACA including vice president, Council of Delegates president, and past chairman of the Coding and Reimbursement Committee and Ethics Committee, told delegates in his first remarks as ACA president:

"We possess the opportunity to shape health care into a conservative-first approach, to promote health, wellness and preventive strategies and to promote patient-centered, evidence-informed health care."

Texas Chiro. College Begins Search for New President

Texas Chiropractic College's Board of Regents has announced it has initiated a nationwide search to identify the 14th president of the college following the retirement of longtime president Dr. Richard Brassard in September 2013. Dr. Brassard, affiliated with the college since 1985, served as president for almost 10 years.

TCC's search for Dr. Brassard's successor begins with a delegation of board members who have been named to the presidential search committee, led by TCC Board Chair Dr. Monte Blue.

"A deliberative search process offers an important opportunity to understand and clarify the priorities and challenges of TCC," said Dr. Blue. "The selection of the 14th President of Texas Chiropractic College is one of the most important tasks the Board of Regents has before it. I thank the members of the search committee for their help in developing a pool of qualified applicants to be considered by the full board."
