

News in Brief

Editorial Staff

Doctor of chiropractic Named to NIH Advisory Council

Northwestern Health Sciences University graduate Roni Evans, DC, PhD, MS, is one of five new members of the National Advisory Council for Complementary and Integrative Health, the primary advisory body for the National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health (NCCIH), which operates under the auspices of the National Institutes of Health. The NCCIH is the lead federal research agency for complementary integrative health, according to the NIH.

---

Major Donation by Foot Levelers

Foot Levelers' ongoing financial support of the profession continues with a substantial $100,000 donation to Women Chiropractors, a nonprofit organization designed to motivate and empower women within the chiropractic profession. To learn more about Women Chiropractors, visit www.womenchiropractors.org and read Don Petersen Jr.'s article in our January 2019 issue.

---

In Remembrance: Nancy Singleton

Nancy Singleton, a 1989 graduate of the Los Angeles College of Chiropractic assistant program who operated a busy practice and nutrition business with her husband, Dr. Todd Singleton, has passed away following a battle with cancer. She is survived by her husband, whom she married in 1983, and four children. Learn more and share condolences at www.jenkins-soffe.com.

APRIL 2019