

CCE Presented with Certificate of Recognition

Editorial Staff

The board of directors of the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation in Washington D.C., presented the Commission on Accreditation of the Council on Chiropractic Education a Certificate of Recognition as a "tangible demonstration of the achievements of your Commission and staff members and your commitment of assuring quality education through voluntary accreditation."

NOVEMBER 1992